

Online Privacy

Age verification has been proposed around the world for years, with little success. Often it relies on invasive technology which raises privacy and security concerns. Encryption is like a lock on a door. It is a basic human right. Taking away these rights from people is inhuman and especially because we live in a democratic country, not a authoritarian country. Mass surveillance is not safety it is communism.