What do you think consent means?

When do we need to ask for permission or consent?

Why do we need to ask for consent or permission?

What can you do or say when you don't want to say 'yes'?

Sorry but...

What should you do if someone doesn't want to give you consent?

Consent

When everybody involved agrees to what is happening

Let me take a photo of you

Sure!

- ✓ Choosing to say 'YES' without someone pressuring
- ✓ Giving 'permission'
- ✓ A choice made without pressure or threats
- ✓ Saying 'OK' - I agree
- ✓ Being comfortable with a choice

When is it OK to say 'yes' and give permission?

ONLINE

Can you accept my friend request?

Can I join your online team?

Hey, can I message you privately?

Can I sign up to this game with your email?

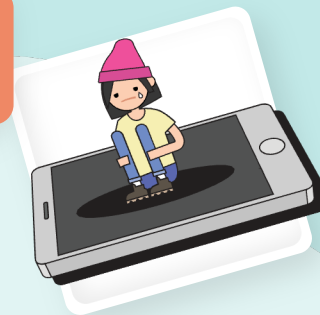

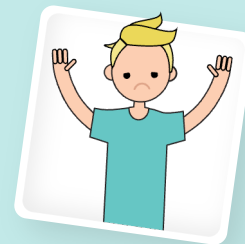

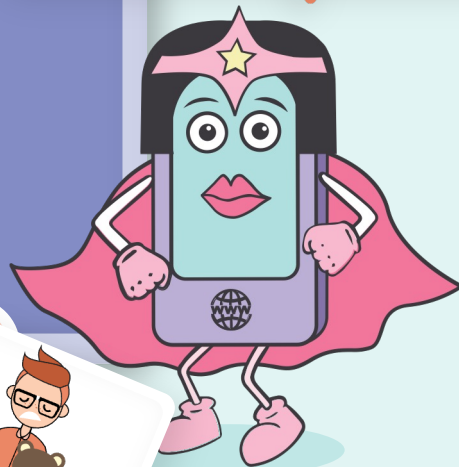

me

Can I share your photo?

Everyone's boundaries are different

And that's OK!

Accept it!

A screenshot of the eSafety Commissioner website. The page title is "The eSafety Guide". Below the title, there is a description: "A guide to social media, apps, games and search engines with links to safety centres and reporting links to request the removal of content". The page features a search bar with the text "I want help with" and a "SEARCH" button, and a "REPORT ABUSE" button. The navigation menu includes "Key Issues", "Educators", "Kids", "Young People", "Parents", "Women", "Seniors", and "About Us". The "Key Issues" section is active. The search results are filtered by "Type" (App, Game, Search engine) and "Logo colour" (Blue, Green, Orange, Purple, Red, Yellow). The results list several apps and games: Air G, Animal Jam, ASKfm, Bing, Bumble, Call of Duty, and Clash of Clans. Each result includes a logo, the name, a brief description, and a category with a right-pointing arrow.
