FSU have posted on X - "we've created an online tool that anyone can use to find out if they're being spied on. The best part - you can force her to reply publicly by Tweet! Click this link to submit your request..."

Hey. I'm just preparing an e-mail to send to everyone following up on Friday's State of Play. Wanted to check if you have any changes/additions prior to sending -

Hi all

Further to my previous e-mail, we have received 136 (and counting) new FOI requests since Friday afternoon. This takes our current total to 158 active requests. Most have been made through an online form set up by the Free Speech Union of Australia. We are assessing the validity of these requests. We have also contacted the OAIC to advise them of our situation.

We will continue to keep you updated as these matters progress and apologise in advance for delays this may cause in other areas. We are in the process of engaging external support to assist with processing, which should hopefully boost our capacity to work on other matters in the coming weeks.

I noticed that at lunchtime yesterday Outlook stopped stamping emails from no-reply@fsu with 'you don't often get email from this address' haha

I just completely ignored the fact that these FSU requests are also separate requests to ACMA.

I've just had a thought
Edited
The FSU e-mail address is a 'no-reply' e-mail address
Does that mean they won't receive it?

Ugghhh influx of FSU requests since 11:15. Wonder if they've reposted on X or something.

Hi both, we've got a new FOI request (sent 12:54pm). It's in the same terms as the FSU ones, but has come directly from the individual.

Hi s 22

We received a bunch of new FSU requests overnight (now over 175) but also this fairly meaty one from s 22

Kind regards
