Dear s 47F

Thank you for your email.

We are writing to update you on your report of adult cyber abuse s 47F .

We have received confirmation from X (Twitter) that they have removed the content for violating their policies.

We have checked the URL to the material and confirm the material is no longer available:

https://x.com/celinevmachine_/status/1795622025010266347

We have been advised by Instagram that they have found no violation of their policies in relation to the content at the below URL:

s 47F, s 47E(d)

We have requested an additional review of the decision and provided further context.

We will update you once we receive a response from Meta.

Kind regards,

Thank you for making a complaint to the Office of the eSafety Commissioner.

Your receipt number is: s 47F.

There are services that are open now if you're worried about your safety or need to talk to someone.

If you are worried about your safety

1. If you are at risk of harm right now contact police immediately by calling Triple Zero (000). If it's not an emergency you can contact your local police station instead.

If you need someone to talk to

1. Contact Lifeline on 13 11 14 if you are having thoughts about self-harm or need counselling support.
2. If your concern is related to a domestic violence issue, we encourage you to contact 1800 RESPECT (1800 737 732) for counselling help.
3. Contact Beyond Blue on 1300 22 4636 for support and advice on where to get the help you need.

We have also provided some guidance, below, about how we may be able to assist you.

What we can do

- Give advice on what you can do yourself
- Assist you in resolving your concern, which may include approaching social media services to have material removed
- Get your consent before acting upon anything

What we can't do

- We cannot get information unless it is publicly available or provided voluntarily (e.g. we cannot trace IP addresses to identify people or access social media postings which are private)
- We don't have enforcement powers to punish or reprimand those who cyberabuse adults
- We cannot force people, social media services or online content hosts to remove cyberabuse directed at adults - we can only try to persuade them to do it themselves
- We cannot provide legal advice - you are free to consult a lawyer or contact your local community legal centre should you wish to explore legal options through the courts.

Kind regards,

Cyber Abuse Team
